FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Listed below are some example questions based on actual questions we receive regarding tuition rates.

- Q I am an independent consultant full-time, but I work as an adjunct professor. What rate should I pay?*
- A As an independent consultant not working full-time for the university, you would pay the standard tuition price of $2,000 as the discounted Educational tuition rate is reserved for full-time staff and faculty members.*
- Q I volunteer at a non-profit organization. Am I eligible for the Not-for-profit discount?*
- A The discounted Not-for-profit tuition rate is reserved for full-time employees of Non-Profit organizations and Government agencies.*
- Q As a Ph.D. student, am I eligible for the Approved Ph.D. Dissertation Students rate?*
- A This tuition rate is reserved for Ph.D. students using the IDI Assessment as part of their dissertation that have been approved by IDI, LLC. If you have not been approved by IDI, LLC, you would not be eligible for that tuition rate. For more information, please visit our website.*
- Q I want to plan a private Qualifying Seminar with participants from different organizations. Will each person be able to attend at the same tuition rate?*
- A Only if all participants qualify for the same tuition rate as detailed above. If one person from a Non-Profit organization is attending a private Qualifying Seminar being organized by a For-Profit organization, that individual would be eligible to attend at the Not-for-profit discounted tuition rate.*
