IDI Qualifying Seminars are available for individuals to be trained and licensed as IDI Qualified Administrators to use the Intercultural Development Inventory. The IDI QS will be presented by an experienced, licensed IDI Qualified Administrator in three sessions (4.5 hours each) across three days (one session per day). The QS is hosted on Zoom with each registered participant being sent information to access the event on the scheduled date and time.

During the event, participants will:

- Gain proficiency in using the IDI for increasing intercultural competence for individuals, teams, and organizations.
- Learn how the IDI differs from traditional measures of intercultural competence.
- Learn how to interpret individual and group IDI results
- Practice giving IDI Profile Report debriefs in supportive role-play scenarios
- Receive introductory training to use the Intercultural Conflict Style Inventory®

Tuition includes:

- Enrollment to the Online IDI Qualifying Seminar (three total sessions)
- IDI Qualified Administrator license
- IDI resources and materials
- IDI Individual Profile Report
- Intercultural Development Plan (IDP)
- Intercultural Conflict Style (ICS) Inventory results
- Access to IDI account for purchasing IDI login codes and generating IDI Reports

In order to obtain the IDI Qualified Administrator license, each attendee will need to be present for the duration of the Qualifying Seminar, complete all assignments, and be present for all activities. Attendance and participation are monitored to ensure these requirements are met.
